I'd do it all again

G

Chorus: We were in a bind

Am

Don't know what you think anymore

We knew it

D/C/G

from the start

Don't know what
you're gonna say

D

You might think it's a matter of the mind

We exploded in the glare of the full
moon

Am/C/D

G/C/C#/D/G/Am/C/G

But I know

Am

it's a matter of the heart

C/C#/D

At the end of the longest day

G

I've lived the longest night since then

Am

In the worst kind of pain

G

G

But I'm a fool for your smile even once in a while

Am

Don't know what
you feel anymore
Don't know what
you're gonna do
I'm the one who's knockin' at your door
If the person inside
is you

I was shattered in
the haze of a dead
summer's daze
I didn't wanna see
the sun
There were no
answers to calm my fears
There was no place
to run (cho.)

These few scattered clues that you left behind
I hope one day you realize
What we didn't try to find (cho.)

March 22, 1987

F

I know we had
somethin' that filled
up this space

G

That now is forlorn and empty

F

What sent you runnin' to some other place

Guarding words
that only could've
meant me

Don't know who you are anymore
Don't know where you're gonna be
I never promised more than I delivered
Never was anyone
but me
Now I'm sifting
through these blues
